ABOUT THIS EVENT

As part of International Digital Week 2026, Université Côte d'Azur is hosting a Blended Intensive Program (BIP) focused on the societal dimension of internationalisation and the contribution of higher education institutions to society.

This BIP explores how international strategies, partnerships, and mobility initiatives can strengthen social engagement, global citizenship, and community-oriented impact. Discussions will consider inclusive internationalisation models and the ways HEIs can extend the benefits of global collaboration to society at large.

EMBODIED DIGITAL MEMORY: VIRTUAL EXCHANGE AND INTERCULTURAL LEARNING THROUGH SCENIC PRACTICES

Location | Room 203

Facilitator | Christine Schmider & Eden Golob, Lecturers at Université Côte d'Azur

This interactive workshop invites participants to actively explore memorial theatre projects across both physical and digital formats. Building on collaborative school–university experiences at Université Côte d'Azur around Eva Freud, Charlotte Salomon, and Anne Frank, it engages them in reflecting on embodied memory, co-creation, and virtual exchange. Participants will take part in hands-on activities, including creative writing and scenic improvisation, and be guided to design and prepare their own participatory memorial theatre projects.

RECOGNISING VOLUNTEER SKILLS: A DIGITAL CERTIFICATION FRAMEWORK

Location | Room 205

Facilitator | Vicky Lovelock & Francesco Volpini, Coordinating Committee for International Voluntary Service (CCIVS)

How do we make the skills that volunteers develop through their service visible and meaningful beyond the experience itself? This workshop presents the digital certification framework being developed through C-IVS Skills (Erasmus+, EYF, COE), a project bringing together partner organisations across the globe. Through a participatory approach, we explore how volunteer competencies can be documented, validated and communicated in ways that are credible and transferable across contexts. Facilitated by Victoria Lovelock (CCIVS) and Francesco Volpini, expert in impact measurement.

SIMULTANEOUS WORKSHOPS 15:00 - 16:00

FROM VISION TO PRACTICE: DEVELOPING INSTITUTIONAL STRATEGIES FOR COIL

Location | Room 203

Facilitator | Nicole Ondrusch: Vice Dean Faculty Computer Science at Heilbronn University of Applied Sciences.

This workshop explores how universities can strategically integrate COIL into teaching and internationalisation. Participants will examine approaches from needs analysis to implementation and support structures. Through discussion, they will share experiences and identify key success factors. The session provides practical strategies to develop and scale COIL initiatives in higher education.

INTERNATIONALISATION & CROSS-CULTURAL LAB: ADVANCING GLOBAL COLLABORATION AND SOCIETAL IMPACT

Location | Room 205

Facilitator | Natalia Vaskova: Senior International Officer & Head of IRO at Technical University of Kosice

This workshop explores internationalisation as a strategic tool for transforming campuses and society through digital practices. Participants will examine COIL and other approaches that foster intercultural dialogue, collaboration, and global engagement. The session draws on practical insights and student experiences to highlight inclusive and motivating strategies. Participants will gain transferable ideas to embed sustainable and impactful internationalisation across their institutions.

COIL4STAFF: STRENGTHENING INTERNATIONALISATION FOR ADMINISTRATIVE AND SERVICE STAFF

Location | Room 203

Facilitator | Elena Arellano, Admissions Advisor & Merche Gimeno, Head of the International Relations Office at University CEU Cardenal Herrera-Valencia

Internationalisation in Higher Education increasingly highlights the key role of administrative and service staff in global engagement, yet they often lack access to structured intercultural training. COIL4Staff, based on Collaborative Online International Learning (COIL), addresses this gap through Virtual Exchange, fostering collaboration, leadership, and peer learning. Developed with Université Côte d'Azur, the programme enables staff to exchange best practices, tackle shared institutional challenges, and co-develop action plans in key areas such as mobility, admissions, and student services, strengthening partnerships and internationalisation strategies."

11:30 - 13:00

CULTURE TRANSFER ONLINE VS IN PERSON

Location | Room 203

Facilitator | Natalia Timuş, Manager of International Learning Experiences at Université Côte d'Azur

This workshop focuses on increasing the understanding of culture transfer and intercultural competence in the context of in-person and online learning. It aims at analysing the advantages and disadvantages of the intercultural co-creation process. Also, the workshop shares good practices on culture transfer in various learning environments and provides a hands-on activity for participants' engagement in the transfer of individual intercultural knowledge and experience.

13:00 - 14:00 LUNCH BREAK

SIMULTANEOUS WORKSHOPS 14:00 - 15:00

ACADEMIC STAFF MOBILITY AND ITS LONG-TERM IMPACT: INTERNATIONALISATION FOR SOCIETY

Location | Room 203

Facilitator | Ekaterine Pirskhalava, Head of the Unit International Cooperation, Associate Professor, Faculty of Psychology and Educational Sciences at Ivane Javakhishvili Tbilisis State University

This workshop explores the long-term impact of Erasmus+ academic staff mobility on institutions and society. It presents findings from a survey examining effects on teaching, research, and international collaboration. Participants will reflect on factors that support sustainable outcomes, such as institutional support and knowledge sharing. The session offers evidence-based insights and practical recommendations to enhance the long-term value of mobility programs.

COIL PASSPORT: CREATIVE INTERCULTURAL LEARNING THROUGH DIGITAL COLLABORATION

Location | Room 205

Facilitator | Dr. Osmanovic, Assistant Professor at University of Montenegro & Begoña Crespo, Professor at University of A Coruña

This workshop explores COIL (Collaborative Online International Learning) as a tool for virtual internationalisation. It presents a case study connecting students across countries through digital collaboration and intercultural exchange. Participants will engage in reflective activities and design their own mini-COIL elements. The session provides practical tools to foster intercultural competencies and meaningful digital learning experiences.

SIMULTANEOUS WORKSHOPS 15:00 - 16:00

INTERNATIONALISATION AT HOME: THE TLEMCCEN EXPERIENCE

Location | Room 203

Facilitator | Omar Behadada, Deputy of the Vice Rector at University of Tlemccen

This workshop explores how internationalisation at home can transform university life without requiring mobility. It presents the experience of the University of Tlemccen and its collaboration through European projects. Participants will reflect on practical ways to foster intercultural learning and inclusive practices on campus. The session offers simple, transferable ideas to make internationalisation more accessible and impactful.

FROM VIRTUAL EXCHANGE TO INTERNATIONALISATION AT HOME: FOSTERING SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY THROUGH INCLUSIVE GLOBAL LEARNING

Location | Room 205

Facilitator | Christine Evain, Professor in Didactics at Université Rennes 2

This interactive workshop translates the Intercultural Virtual Societal Challenge (IVSC) into a practical Internationalisation at Home (IaH) framework. Participants will design inclusive, scalable virtual exchange projects using challenge-based learning and universal design learning (UDL) principles. Through hands-on activities, they will explore digital tools, team structures, and strategies to foster intercultural collaboration, social responsibility, and equitable global learning without physical mobility.
